Memory.
If it should be asked what possession I most valued I would say some beautiful memory. Memory is possession. It is the only thing on earth that is absolutely ours, which no one can take from us. We can produce and enjoy it in a crowd of uncongenial people as easily as if we were alone. No noise can drown its voice; no distance can dim its clearness. Strength, hope, beauty, everything else, may pass. Memory will stay.—Selected.

Domestic Economy.
When a woman wants to economize she likes to cut it out of what the family eats, and when a man proposes economy he wants to take it out of what his wife wears.—Galveston News

OHIO WOMAN'S WISH For Tired, Weak, Nervous Women

Bellefontaine, Ohio.—“I wish every tired, weak, nervous woman could have Vinol, for I never spent any money in my life that did me so much good as that I spent for Vinol. I was weak, tired, worn out and nervous, and Vinol made me strong, well and vigorous after everything else had failed to help me, and I can now do my housework with pleasure.”—Mrs. J. F. LAMBORN.
We guarantee Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, for all weak, run-down, nervous, debilitated conditions.

Santa Claus says:

Q A face wreathed in smiles is better than a mansion wreathed in holly.
Q Better broken toys than broken hearts.
Q Never look a gift object in the price tag.
Q Santa Claus by any other name would cost as much—and be worth it.
Q Do not be satisfied with wishing people a “Merry Christmas,” help make it one.
Q Lots of men put on long white whiskers and think they look like me when they look more like a goat—and perhaps they are.
Q If Willie wants to see what is inside the drum, for goodness sake let him.
Q You are living in God's own country. What more do you want for Christmas?
Q It is a wise Santa who keeps his whiskers away from the candles.
Q Keep up the “Good will to man” part of it right through until next Christmas.
Q It is more blessed to give than to receive, except in the matter of offense.
Q Fortunately for most of us, we won't get what we deserve on Christmas.
Q When Christmas giving becomes a necessity it ceases to be a virtue.
Q There is more joy in heaven over a ton of coal given to the poor than a ton of diamonds given to the rich.

Song of the Christmas Tree

By Gene Morgan

I come from northern forest lands
Where men would tarry never.
The seasons come, the seasons go,
But I am green forever.
The flowers of spring bloom at my feet,
The shadows always spreading.
Near by there runs a forest path
Where watchful deer are treading.
The summer passes all too soon,
And autumn winds are chilly.
Frost flowers, they wither, droop and die
Amid the woodland hilly.

From every branch, sad tears I drip
In rainstorm's fierce endeavor.
The flowers may come, the flowers may go,
But I am green forever.
Now hark! the woodman's ax is heard!
A sister tree he's felling.
What can this cruel destruction mean?
The winter wind is telling.
“Do not bemoan thy mournful fate,
Thou' axmen wield with madness.
Bedecked in tinsel, bright and fine,
You'll soon bring children gladness.
“Thou canst not die, although thy trunk
Harsh hatchet blows may sever.
Within the little children's hearts
Thou wilt be green forever!”

Origin of Christmas Tree.

The Christmas tree is supposed by great numbers of people to have originated in Germany, but from a reliable source we learn that the Christmas tree came in the first instance from Egypt, and its origin dates from a period much earlier than the Christian era. The palm tree is known to put forth a branch every month, and a spray of this tree with 12 shoots on it was used in Egypt at the time of the winter solstice as a symbol of the completed year.
